creating a group of buyer entities based on said composite scores.

15. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising: providing a plurality of said incentives from different advertisers to one of the buyer entities, including the steps of determining the sequence or the relative prominence of each of the plurality of the incentive awards based on said calculated score.

16. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 15, wherein the plurality of incentives are provided across a plurality of distribution channels.

17. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 12, further comprising: receiving additional proof of purchase records for one of said buyer entities; and recalculating at least one of said scores said one of said buyer entities based on the additional proof of purchase records.

18. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 17, further comprising: determining if the recalculated score qualifies said one of the buyer entities for an on-going incentive.

19. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 17, further comprising: recalculating the incentive determined in said incentive providing step by applying said recalculated score of said one of the buyer entities to an incentive function.

20. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 17, further comprising: providing a plurality of said incentives from different advertisers to one of the buyer entities, including the steps of determining the sequence or the relative prominence of each of the plurality of the incentive awards based on said recalculated score.

21. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 20, wherein the plurality of incentives are provided across a plurality of distribution channels.

22. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising the ~~steps of:~~

weighting questions based on scores of said buyer entity;
selecting questions, based, at least in part, on the weight given the question;
sending questionnaires electronically to a plurality of said buyer entities;
and receiving responses to the questionnaire from a plurality of said buyer entities;
weighting said responses from at least one of said buyer entities; and recalculating at least one score for the at least one buyer entity based on said weighted responses.

23. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 22, further comprising:
determining if the recalculated score qualifies said one of the buyer entities for an on-going incentive.

24. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 22, further comprising:
recalculating the incentive determined in said incentive providing step by applying said recalculated score of said one of the buyer entities to the incentive function.

25. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 22, further comprising:
providing a plurality of said incentives from different advertisers to one of the buyer entities, including the steps of determining the sequence or the relative prominence of each of the plurality of the incentive awards based on said recalculated score.

26. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 25, wherein the plurality of incentives are provided across a plurality of distribution channels.

27. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, comprising:
obtaining non-purchase information about one of said buyer entities from third party; and recalculating at least one score of said one of said buyer entities based on the non-purchase information.

28. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, wherein said non-purchase information is demographic information.

29. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, further comprising: receiving an authorization from said one of the buyer entities as a threshold requirement to performing the obtaining non-purchase information.

30. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, further comprising: determining if the recalculated score qualifies said one of the buyer entities for an on-going incentive.

31. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, further comprising: recalculating the incentive determined in said incentive providing step by applying said recalculated score of said one of the buyer entities to the incentive function.

32. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, further comprising: providing a plurality of said incentives from different advertisers to one of the buyer entities, including the steps of determining the sequence or the relative prominence of each of the plurality of the incentive awards based on said recalculated score.

33. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 27, wherein the plurality of incentives are provided across a plurality of distribution channels.

34. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, wherein at least one category is an individual company, and wherein the score for that category is calculated based on the amount of purchases indicated by said proof of purchase records for said individual company.

35. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising the step of sending at least one score of a particular one of said buyer entities to a third party after receipt of an authorization from said particular buyer entity.

36. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, storing electronically at least one score for a buyer entity at a computer for said buyer entity.

37. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, wherein said storing step comprises storing the at least one score on a cookie.

38. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 36, further comprising the step of said buyer entity sending said score to a third party.

39. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising the steps of:

recalculating the scores for each of a plurality of buyer entities based on new proof of purchase records entered in the electronic database;

comparing the recalculated scores to a threshold; and generating an indication if one of the recalculated scores exceeds said threshold but the score before recalculation did not exceed the threshold.

41. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising the step of calculating a fee based on the scores of the buyer entities provided the incentive.

42. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 13, further comprising the step of receiving information on whether one of the buyer entities made a follow-up purchase or a co-purchase contemporaneous with or after accepting an incentive; and recalculating the score for said one of the buyer entities with additional points provided for making the purchase after accepting the incentive.

43. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 42, further comprising: determining if the recalculated score qualifies said one of the buyer entities for an on-going incentive.

44. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 42, further comprising: recalculating the incentive determined in said incentive providing step by applying said recalculated score of said one of the buyer entities to the incentive function.

45. (Amended) The method as defined in claim 42, further comprising: providing a plurality of said incentives from different advertisers to one of the buyer entities, including the steps of determining the sequence or the relative prominence of each of the plurality of the incentive awards based on said recalculated score.
